

Name: _____ Adjective or Adverb? Period: _____

Directions: Choose the correct form of the word from the parentheses. Then, write whether it is an adjective or an adverb. Last, circle the word that the adjective or adverb is modifying.

1. He found his way (easy, easily) even in the dim light. _____
2. He is (good, well) to her. _____
3. She did very (good, well) on the last test. _____
4. They marched down the street (valiant, valiantly). _____
5. There are some (real, really) fine writers in this class. _____
6. We do not have (near, nearly) enough time to finish. _____
7. She is (bad, badly) about leaving the lid off the jelly. _____
8. I feel (bad, badly) about leaving my dog at the kennel. _____
9. Janice takes her job (serious, seriously). _____
10. Don't take this (personal, personally), but your husband is a jerk. _____
11. He seems (different, differently) from what I imagined. _____
12. Professor Bates is one of the most (wide, widely) read people I know. _____
13. His homework assignments (sure, surely) are some of the most challenging in our university.
_____
14. The sound of the bells carried so (good, well) that everyone in town could hear them.
_____
15. Although I am walking on crutches, I'll get there (slow, slowly) but (sure, surely).
_____
16. She has a very (sweet, sweetly) smile. _____
17. Probably no one can tell a story as (good, well) as my father can. _____
18. My mother looked (scornful, scornfully) at the untidy waiter. _____
19. My mother looked (awful, awfully) in her new chartreuse hat. _____
20. I feel (awful, awfully) (bad, badly) that we forgot to invite the Smiths to the clambake.
_____