

Begrudge	v. to resent another's success; to envy
Bibliophile	n. a lover of books
Declaim	v. to speak in a dramatic, impassioned, or blustering manner
Enmity	n. deep-seated hostility, often mutual
Gaff	n. a pole with a large hook on one end
Glutinous	adj. gluey; sticky
Imbue	v. to inspire or influence; to saturate
Mandarin	n. an influential person; a member of the elite
Nepotism	n. favoritism shown to family or friends by those in power, especially in business or hiring practices
Quaff	v. to drink in large quantities; to gulp